

Lighting the Lamp of Peace

People of Faith,
Reconciliation &
Peacemaking
in a TIME OF WAR

---

Saturday, February 5th, 2005

1:00 to 3:30 pm

At the Sisters of St. Joseph Motherhouse (Chapel)

1515 W. Ogden, LaGrange Park, IL (N. Side of Ogden, between Mannheim and Wolf Rd)

---

Join us in Prayers for Peace, Song and Good Community as we Celebrate the 2nd Annual Gathering of the WEST SUBURBAN FAITH-BASED PEACE COALITION. All who feel a faith calling to work for peace in these troubled times are encouraged to attend.

Featuring:

- Rev. Todd Friesen

- Lead Pastor of the Lombard Mennonite Church, a committed peacemaker and courageous voice for peace & nonviolence in his own church
- Todd will explore the important role that Churches & Faith Communities have to play in the work of peacemaking during a time of war, addressing how Preemptive Love and Reconciliation are the very Heart of the Christian Gospel.

- A Panel Discussion on :

Peacemaking in Local Congregations

- Five peacemakers, actively involved in peace activities in their own local churches, mosques and faith communities, will share their thoughts on the opportunities and challenges of congregation based peacemaking.

- WSFPC: Where we've been & where we're going :

Peace Education, Legislative Work, Peace Action, Humanitarian Relief & more

---

** For Info: www.faithpeace.org call: 630-768-9305 email: wsfpc@comcast.net **