Does Your Legislator Hear You When You Talk?

Learn effective ways to communicate with your congressperson

Gary Cozette of the Chicago Religious Leadership Network (CRLN) will share with us proven techniques to make productive congressional visits as well as dos and don'ts for talking with your legislator.

Using the issues of world hunger and militarism we will explore a process that can make your voice heard on any concern.

Though this seminar is designed to further skills covered in the event offered by the WSFPC last February, it will be useful to all whether you attended the previous workshop or not.
