

Take a bus from DuPage to the National March for Peace in Washington, D.C.

- ▶ Bus leaves Elmhurst Friday, 9-23, 6:00 p.m., promptly
- ▶ Departure: Wilder Park (corner of Arthur & Cottage Hill)
- ▶ Bus arrives in Washington D.C. Saturday 9-10 a.m.
- ▶ Bus leaves Washington D.C. Saturday 6-7 p.m.
- ▶ Bus returns to Elmhurst Sunday 9-10 a.m.

There will be a send-off rally Friday 4:45 – 5:30 p.m.
at the departure point in Elmhurst.

There is free parking available at the departure point.

Travel is by modern 51-seat bus with video capabilities and a bathroom.

Bus stops at truck stops with washrooms; food will be available for purchase.

To make a reservation: Send in the form below along with your check. Seats will be reserved when the check is received, providing there is still space available. You will be contacted via email to confirm your reservation (or to let you know if the bus is full). Please do not send checks by mail after September 19.

What if the bus is full? We will hold incoming checks while we wait to see if there are enough people for a second DuPage bus. We will let you know by September 19 whether there will be a second bus, so you can make other arrangements if necessary.

Can't go but want to support the rally? Send a donation to help with expenses and to provide scholarship funds to people who would like to go but can't afford it. (Or consider donating to the national organizations that are sponsoring the march; see www.troopsoutnow.org or www.unitedforpeace.org.)
